

Guiding Questions for My Magazine Article Assignment

Article Topic:

Name:

You need to think of 5-6 guiding questions before you start looking for information for your magazine article assignment. Remember, your guiding questions should be open-ended whenever possible.

For example, if my magazine theme is Early America, I might want to write an article about the Native Americans who lived in what is now the 4 Corners region of the United States before any European contact. As I do not know much about these people, here are some guiding questions that I might want to pursue:

- How did they get their food?
- What were their houses like?
- What technology did they use?

Now come up with your own questions. Write them below, and share them with me before transferring them to your SS notebook or a Google Doc!

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
