2018-19 Weebly E-Mag Page

You need to create an E-Mag page on your Weebly. The purpose of this is to highlight the writing you are doing in language arts. This document is fluid; I will add to it as the year progresses. For now, please review the expectations below. UPDATED ON 12/3/18

Magazine Article

1. Get the document ready!
   a. Make a copy of this document and work from the copy you make!
   b. Make sure the document is single spaced
   c. Make sure to include pictures, and be mindful about where you place your pictures
   d. Download your doc as a PDF
2. Prepare your Weebly E-Mag Page!
   a. Include a picture that has something to do with your Magazine Article
   b. Create a title
   c. Add author's name
   d. Copy and paste the first sentence or two from your Magazine Article in italics
   e. Write "Click here to read more" after the first sentence of two in the step above and change the color of the text in the words "Click here"
3. Link your Magazine Article to your E-Mag page!
   a. Highlight the "Click Here" text you created on your E-Mag page
   b. Click on the "create link" icon (looks like a chain link) on the toolbar
   c. Click on "File"
   d. Check the "Open in new window" box and click on "upload new"
   e. Go to your Downloads, select your Magazine Article PDF file and click "open"
   f. After your work uploads, hit "Publish" and check to see if the link worked!

   See the example on da blog!

Readers' Response

1. Get the document ready!
   a. Make a copy of Readers' Response and work from the copy!
   b. Get rid of your name and title
   c. Single space the document
   d. Include at least one picture (more is always better!)
   e. Download your doc as a PDF
   f. Should look like this
2. Prepare your Weebly E-Mag Page!
   a. Place a picture related to your Readers' Response
   b. Create a title
   c. Copy and paste the first sentence from your Readers' Response in italics
   d. Write "Click here to read more" after the first sentence of two in the step above and change the color of the text in the words "Click here"
   e. Should look like this:

Readers' Respond!

Dear Tales From the Water,

*I really liked your article on solo canoeing in your last issue ("Doing it Alone," 10/15/17)...*Click here to read more!

3. Link your Readers' Response to your E-Mag page!
   a. Highlight the "Click Here" text you created on your E-Mag page
   b. Click on the "create link" icon (looks like a chain link) on the toolbar
   c. Click on "File"
   d. Check the "Open in new window" box and click on "upload new"
   e. Go to your Downloads, select your Readers' Response PDF file and click "open"
   f. After your work uploads, hit "Publish" and check to see if the link worked!

==See the examples on da blog!==

E-Mag Page Overview

1. Title: Give this page a unique title that relates to the theme of your E-Mag.
2. Description: Somewhere near the top of the page you need to write a description of what the content of this page will include.
3. Picture: You need to include at least one pic that relates to the theme of your E-Mag
4. Mechanics: Spelling, grammar and punctuation matter! Your posted material should be as flawless as you can make it; get help with this if you think you need it!
5. Should look like this:

Tales From the Water

Welcome to my E-Mag page! Here you will find assignments that I have worked on in language arts, and all of these pieces have one thing in common: they focus on my love of being on and around water!

See the examples on da blog!